

Map 36

Warren Center Village – 1855. Showing Expansion and development Over 30 Years.

Map 36 shows the town of Warren in 1855. This map demonstrates progress and growth since 1825, which was demonstrated on map 35 when Warren was still named Western.

Within these thirty years, the population of Warren exploded. With the huge growth in population, came many new roads, bridges, a railroad named (Western Railroad). Many new business as well as houses, churches and barns with the owners and company names were also built.
